In an area where it is hard to get a response from contractors, much less have them show up, White Sands Construction is an anomaly. I do not live in the town where the work was done, so it was reassuring to have a company with initiative on the job. They responded promptly during the bidding process, initiated contact in the interim and gave a concise bid. Thereafter they worked with the insurance company to finalize process the work contract. The work was completed in a timely manner and I was kept apprised of the process.

Sincerely,
