

Suburban Extended Stay Hotel breaks ground

DAILY NEWS REPORT

Owners of the new Suburban Extended Stay Hotel have broken ground at 2500 N. White Sands Blvd. Construction is expected to be finished in November. Franchised by Choice Hotels International Inc. (NYSE:CHH), Suburban Extended Stay Hotel brand properties provide solutions for long-term travel needs.

Owned and operated by The Crimmins Family Limited Partnership LLC of Alamogordo, the Suburban Extended Stay Hotel will feature 58 guest rooms. Guest rooms will include queen-sized or two double beds, fully equipped kitchens, personal data ports and voice-mail and free cable TV.

“We are excited to be building a Suburban Extended Stay Hotel property in Alamogordo,” said Crimmins. “The services and amenities of the hotel are designed to exceed the expectations of both business and leisure travelers.” The hotel will offer an on-site laundry facility, free high-speed Internet access, weekly housekeeping service and outdoor pool.
